Priority to children in Parc Josaphat

1,531 signatures GB FR NL TR

Since March 2020, the avenue Van Vollenhoven in Schaerbeek is car-free. The decision was motivated by the need for social distancing during the COVID-19 crisis. For eight months, the inhabitants of Schaerbeek took great advantage of the space. Children learned to ride bicycles and skate. Older people could walk around and enjoy social life at a safe distance. PRMs and cyclists could safely cross the park to the other side of Schaerbeek....

Open letter to the commune of Schaerbeek: give priority to pedestrians, runners and bicycles

836 signatures GB FR NL

We are not against cars. They do have their utility. But why privatise most of the public space in our commune for those cars that make our streets quite dangerous for our kids? Can't we share this public space?...

Open Letter to Andy Burnham: Autism Act 2009 & the urgent need for autism support

25 signatures

Dear Andy Burnham, My name is Chelsea Webster and I am an autistic campaigner. Last year, I led a campaign to make the Autism Act Committee review more accessible, enabling more autistic people to provide feedback on the success of the Autism Strategy. I was named in The Time to Deliver report for this

Lettera aperta sui reati minorili

2,092 signatures

Milano e Roma raccontano, in queste settimane, una città meno sicura — e buona parte di quella sensazione di pericolo viene attribuita a una generazione di adolescenti sempre più aggressivi e sempre più fuori controllo. È in questo clima che arriva la proposta di rendere imputabili i minori tra i 14 e i 18 anni senza più la valutazione caso per caso che il Codice di procedura penale minorile (D....
